240,000 Mississippians Enjoy Blue Cross Health Protection

Every fourth person in the United States now has Blue Cross protection. For dues of only a few cents a day, these subscribers are freed from the threat of debt resulting from sudden illness or accident. As members of Blue Cross, they know that when the need for hospital care arises, this care has been substantially prepaid and will be provided immediately.

According to statistics, the chances are 1 to 7 that you will go to the hospital within a year, and 1 to 4 that some member of your family will go. And 9 out of 10 persons have trouble getting money to pay their hospital bills. Thousands of Mississippians have decided that the wisest way to provide protection against such a crisis is to join Blue Cross.

A low-cost, non-profit, voluntary community welfare plan, Blue Cross is made possible by the cooperation of hospitals and community leaders. It is the only health protection plan endorsed by the American Hospital Association and the Mississippi Hospital Association.

Today, for the first time, individuals in many areas of Mississippi are eligible to join Blue Cross. In the past, only those working in offices where five or more persons were employed were eligible to belong. During the month of October, however, individuals under 65 years of age and in good health, who are self-employed, unemployed, or employed in offices staffed by less than five persons may join Blue Cross.

Those who wish to take advantage of the health protection offered by Blue Cross should contact their local hospital or the local Farm Bureau Office for complete information or write Mississippi Hospital and Medical Service, Box 1043, Jackson, Mississippi.

MOM!
Something good's here!

It's the telephone installer Junior is shouting about; and soon still another Mississippi farm family will have telephone service. Today, in the rural areas of the State served by Southern Bell, there are four times as many telephones as there were just a little over 7 years ago.

That's an accomplishment worth crowing about. But more and more farm families want telephones, and we're installing them as fast as we possibly can. Installations this year will add more than 5,000 new rural telephones in the State!

SHARING
Three simple rules of sharing make party-line service better for all users: (1) Be reasonable about how long you talk. (2) Yield the line for emergencies when asked. (3) Replace the receiver gently when you find the line is in use.

WASTING
DOLLAR?

Dust and dirt cut down the efficiency of your lighting equipment. You use just as much electricity but the light can't get through. As a result you may be wasting as much as 50 cents of your lighting dollar.

While the switch is off and bulbs and fixtures are cool wash them with lukewarm water and a mild soap or detergent. Dry carefully before using. Replace dead bulbs.

Regular cleaning will give you maximum efficiency from your lighting equipment.

SYMBOLS OF PROGRESS...

KNOW WHO WEARS THEM?

You'll probably recognize them by now — the protective helmet and gloves of the oil field worker. Here in the Gulf South there are also the "body men" of the Gulf who assure you adequate supplies of modern gas. The equipment and the men who make gas to your community.

The progress of the natural gas industry in the Gulf South has been a remarkable one. From the first gas wells in the Gulf to the modern gas fields of today, the industry has grown and prospered. The Gulf South is now a major gas producing area, and the progress of the industry is a testament to the ingenuity and hard work of the men who wear the protective helmet and gloves.
